We can't wait to see you!

Dear GSGLA Girl Scouts
and Girl Scout Families:

Welcome to a new year of Girl Scouting—many exciting adventures await you! We hope that you'll enjoy this issue of Greater, our new and more robust triannual program guide. Make sure to check out the cookie program section as well as all of the GSGLA news articles—some are even written by girls!

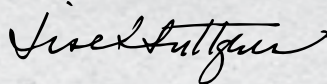

At Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles, we move at “the speed of girls,” meaning we are always searching for new and inspiring ways to meet your demands for modern, fun, and unique experiences. At GSGLA, there is a program for every girl, whether her interests are leadership; business and financial literacy; outdoor adventure; STE[A]M (science, technology, engineering, art, math), or healthy living.

As you'll notice in the cookies section of this guide, we have some exciting changes to the 2015 Girl Scout Cookie Program, the leading business and entrepreneurial program for girls. These changes, which were prompted by volunteer feedback, will provide key functional and financial benefits to all, including higher troop proceeds with our price-point increase and a simpler direct sale. Now, our cookie season better aligns with changes and sale dates in most of our surrounding councils. (Plus, we have two new cookies!)

I hope this guide helps you plan an eventful year of learning, growing, and making new friends and memories.

Yours in Girl Scouting,

Lise L. Luttgens
Chief Executive Officer

THE 2015 GIRL SCOUT COOKIE PROGRAM

Are YOU ready for the 2015 Girl Scout Cookie Program?

New Program Features for 2015

Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles is proud to share two exciting changes with lots of benefits to girls and volunteers—all based on member feedback.

Cookies are $5 a box, so troop proceeds will increase by nearly 27%. “Opt-out of rewards” proceeds will double to $0.10. It’s been more than a decade since a Girl Scout cookie price increase, and based on inflation, the cost of doing business for troops, service units, and the overall council has risen since 2004.

The cookie program is now a simpler direct sale (no initial order period), meaning cookies will be in hand at the start! Customers will have immediate satisfaction, and the transaction volume is expected to be higher. The direct sale also better aligns with the timing of our neighboring councils’ cookie seasons.

How is a direct sale different from the initial orders model that you are used to? The direct sale model is shorter (six weeks). The process of collecting customers’ orders pre-delivery is eliminated. Using a formula, troops place a “starting inventory” order in mid-January and cookies get delivered Jan. 30–31. Troops start selling immediately with cookies in hand on Feb. 1, Go Day!. (Girls still use an order card to keep track of their sales). For two weeks, troops will direct sell through personal connections and door-to-door, and then convert to boothing to finish. Voila!

GSGLA will host dynamic trainings and webinars on all new program features, including the simplified direct sale process and how to calculate a starting inventory. Troops should plan to attend training in December; talk to your service unit cookie program chair for a specific date. Have more questions about these program changes or our new cookies? Visit girlscoutsla.org to view the FAQs.

the Girl Scout

Cookie Program

GREEN PRINT

the leading entrepreneurial program for girls

Not only does the Girl Scout Cookie Program help fund all the activities, field trips, and programs girls do all year—it introduces girls to entrepreneurship and helps them develop five essential life skills:

money management + decision-making + people skills + goal-setting + business ethics

she's the BOSS!

Check it out:

When a girl participates in the Girl Scout Cookie Program, she is joining the largest girl-led business in the world!

She works with her troop to set goals, keep track of sales, and make big decisions. With every box of cookies she sells, she is one step closer to achieving her cookie season goals—and gaining a lifetime of skills and confidence.

Let's break it down.

How girls learn the five skills at different Girl Scout levels:

PEOPLE SKILLS

Daisies learn to treat people nicely, say thank you, and work as a team.

BUSINESS ETHICS

Brownies learn to be honest to customers, give correct change, and be team players.

DECISION-MAKING

Juniors weigh pros and cons of decisions and come up with the best choices.

MONEY MANAGEMENT

Cadettes set a budget, learn to save, and discover the benefits of being financially responsible.

GOAL-SETTING

Seniors/Ambassadors set and prioritize financial and personal goals, and develop strategies to reach them.

takes place February 1- March 8

* Ask your troop leader or cookie chair about online order-taking through Cookie Club.

Every Girl Scout can participate in the cookie program whether she is in a troop, group, or independent!

How to participate

1

Talk to your troop cookie program chair, service unit cookie program chair, or a GSGLA staff member.

2

Become a Cookie CEO and sell your heart out!

How to succeed & have fun

1

Look for your Family Letter and use the tips included in it.

2

Use resources on the Cookie Central page at girlscoutsla.org starting in November.

3

Sign up for Cookie Club to take online cookie orders: cookieclub.littlebrownie.com

4

Practice your sales pitch with family and friends.

5

Set personal goals.

6

Learn about Gift of Caring! Customers can donate cash to send cookies to soldiers, food banks, and more.

Family involvement is key. It's all about teamwork!

TOFFEE-TASTIC

Gluten-free butter cookies with golden toffee bits

- Where's that cookie?
Sometimes, girls get asked for a cookie that is not in our product line. One reason we may not have a cookie in stock is because GSGLA's baker (there are two Girl Scout Cookie bakers) does not produce it.
- Our cookie baker, Little Brownie Bakers, has developed a pilot run of a new gluten-free cookie, which we will carry in limited quantities. Toffee-tastic will sell for $6, due to the expensive nature of the ingredients, separate baking process, and additional distribution costs. If you run out of this cookie when customers are asking for it, remind them of supporting Girl Scouts through Gift of Caring.

What can a cookie do?

How $5/box supports Girl Scouts

Your survey results are in!

Stay tuned for the big reveal of the 2015 cookie program rewards for reaching your sales goals!

SAFETY FIRST

- Girls should always wear their Girl Scout membership pin with their uniform, sash or vest, or Girl Scout T-shirt.
- Girls should never enter a customer's home.
- Girls should sell with a buddy.
- Girls must have a plan for safeguarding money and checks collected.
- Direct sale is very different than our previous initial order sale format; thus, girls should have a healthy inventory readily available to them, but make sure to store them safely (in a cool, dry space).

Savannah, a cuddly cheetah, is our 2015 cookie mascot.
Here are some fun facts about her:

Favorite cookie:
Samoa— she has one on her paw!

Favorite accessory:
Star-shaped sunglasses, because she's a cool cat!

Favorite speed:
Fast— did you know cheetahs can run from 0 to 60 mph in three seconds?

GSGLA NEWS

TROOP TRIUMPHS

Girl Scouts seriously rock—but you already knew that, right?

Here are some recent tales of awesomeness
in greater LA:

Talk about team work! Senior and Ambassador Troops 971, 12851, and 3551 planned a Me & My Guy Summer Splash Dinner & Dance in June. The event was full of carnival games, crafts, water games, a dinner, and dance. The dads, granddads, and other special guys shared fun times with their growing girls. Both guys and Girl Scouts learned the importance of remaining in Girl Scouts when they watched a skit about a Daisy Girl Scout growing up to be U.S. President!

“Together, we can accomplish anything.”

Nicole A., Krista J., and Lauren M. from Troop 8102 completed their Silver Award project at Camp Lakota this summer by working with Camp Ranger Don Scott to repair and paint the camp fire ring, paint the new screen room at Big Pine, and clean up the ranch house for future Girl Scouts to enjoy! The girls also researched a DIY bench design and built and painted four benches on their own that can be easily carried around the camp for additional seating. Learning to work with new tools, the girls say that the project helped them realize that if they work together, they can accomplish anything.

Have a timely troop triumph you want to share? Send your story (and photos) to pr@girlscoutsla.org, and it might be featured in an upcoming issue of the Greater Program Guide.

gabbing with girl scouts

This summer, Girl Scouts were given the exclusive opportunity to go to the red carpet premiere and interview the stars of the movie Earth to Echo.

A Day in the Life of...

Here's what two members of GSGLA's Girl Advisory Bureau (GAB) have to say about the experience.

RED CARPET REPORTER!

*By Joanna H.,
Ambassador*

Once I arrived at the red carpet, I quickly got to know my GAB partner, Terri, and she definitely made the work relaxing and more enjoyable! The red carpet astounded me; I had only seen these events on TV and was impressed! We waited in the press line for what seemed like an eternity before the celebrities came out. There were many guest stars that were either already on established TV networks or appeared just to promote the movie. Even Bradley Cooper was there!

Celebrities moved down the long line of media outlets, picking and choosing which media to talk to—a lot of them wanted to talk to Girl Scouts! Terri and I interviewed the director, producer, and many other participants in the movie Earth to Echo. I realized that celebrities are in fact just as real as us and have feelings as well.

There are so many networking opportunities on the red carpet—it was teeming with publicists! Being able to represent GSGLA was awesome and I am definitely humbled by the experience of being a celebrity journalist for a day. The amount of courage and character that these celebrities displayed, not only on screen but off as well, truly inspired and encouraged me to reach out to the world and be less shy and timid. You have to be really outgoing and focused on your questions as celebrities fly by.

FILM JOURNALIST!

By Kaniela N.,
Senior

I went to a press day with a lot of other celebrity reporters to have one-on-one interviews with the four leading cast members of Earth to Echo: Teo Halm, Emma Wahlestedt, Astro, and Reese C. Hartwig. To me, this was one of those experiences where I thought, “Wow! If I wasn’t a Girl Scout, I may have never been given the opportunity!” I learned from this experience what it takes to be a journalist: You have to come up with good questions, but also go with the flow to make the interview go smoothly. I was always interested in journalism, but this event really sealed the deal for me.

What is GAB?

GSGLA's Girl Advisory Bureau (GAB) is a dynamic group of Girl Scouts from every level—Daisy to Ambassador—and from all over the greater Los Angeles area. GAB girls speak up and speak out, acting as the voice of more than 40,000 Girl Scouts, and representing the council at media and civic events. Plus, GAB members engage in leadership and media workshops and share their ideas and stories with the council and the community through “Gabbing with Girl Scouts” articles and videos!

GAB members are selected bi-annually by a committee of Girl Scout staff, Girl Scout volunteers, and media professionals. The application round for the 2015-17 term will occur in October 2014. The deadline to apply is Jan. 5, 2015, and the program starts in spring. Download an application at girlscoutsla.org on “Clubs and Teams” under the “Activities & Events” tab.

PROGRAM GUIDE

General Information

Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles programs through April 2015 are listed in this program guide. Registration open and close dates all vary per program. You must register at least two weeks prior to each event.

Find details about these events and all GSGLA programs through September 2015 at girlscoutsla.org. Click on "Calendar" under the "Activities & Events" tab. Check the program calendar frequently, as pop-up programs are often added throughout the year. Oct. 29, 4–6 p.m. Palmdale Service Center

Grades 9–12, $15 registered/$25 non-registered girl,
$10 adult

This workshop prepares Senior and Ambassador Girl Scouts to embark upon the Gold Award process. Girls learn how to choose and design a project to be measurable and sustainable. The workshop covers the proposal, interview, execution, and pre- and post-paperwork. To attend, girls should be near completion of their prerequisites. Their troop leaders, advisors, and parents are encouraged to attend.

ROCKET WHIZ B J

Oct. 18, 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Montrose Program Center

Grades 2–5, $20 per girl

Experience rocketry firsthand! Brownie and Junior Girl Scouts will build and decorate their own model rockets. Participation in a build workshop qualifies each girl to launch her own rocket during a launch event (date TBD) at the Santa Fe Dam! Program registration includes all materials and supplies to build and launch a rocket, as well as a rocketry patch. Separate fees for parking at Santa Fe Dam ($10) and extra launches (beyond the first one) are NOT included. Extra launches can be purchased at the dam for under $10.

ROCK IT! C S A

Oct. 18, 1–3 p.m.

Montrose Program Center

Grades 6–12, $25 per girl

Push your construction skills to the limit and rock your rocket! Cadette, Senior, and Ambassador Girl Scouts will build their own advanced-level model rockets. Participation in a build workshop qualifies each girl to launch her own rocket during a launch event (date TBD) at the Santa Fe Dam! Program registration includes all materials and supplies to build and launch a rocket, as well as a rocketry patch. Separate fees for parking at Santa Fe Dam ($10) and extra launches (beyond the first one) are NOT included. Extra launches can be purchased at the dam for under $10.

TRUNK OR TREAT D B J C S A

Oct. 18, Time TBD (Check online program calendar)

Grades K–12, $20 troop

Location TBA (Check online program calendar)

Show off your creativity by decorating and displaying a car trunk at the second annual Trunk or Treat! Visit other troops' cars at this spooktacular event to collect candy and meet other local Girl Scouts. Sorry, no tag-alongs! Fee covers a fun craft table and snacks (while supplies last!), one parking space, and a fun patch for each troop member. Awards will be given to the best costume, best decorated trunk, and to the service unit with the most participation, so the more the merrier (and spookier)!

HAUNTED OSITO D B J C S A

Oct. 24–26 (Overnight)

Grades K–12

$100 registered girl/$110 non-registered girl, $100 adult
Camp Osito Rancho, Big Bear

Osito Bear is inviting you to a weekend of Halloween fun! Enjoy dinner wearing your favorite Halloween costume and find out who can create the best Halloween-themed table! Bring your favorite Halloween SWAP to give away to your sister Girl Scouts, then visit Winnie-the-Pooh's 100-Acre Forest where you can canoe, participate in archery, and create some awesome Halloween art.

INVENT IT! BUILD IT!

Oct. 25, 9 a.m.–3 p.m.

Grades 6–8, $7 girl, $5 adult

Los Angeles Convention Center

The Society of Women Engineers (SWE), Girl Scouts, WGBH's Design Squad Nation, and the ExxonMobil Foundation have teamed up for the fifth annual Invent It! Build It! event. Girls will participate in a hands-on engineering experience with members of the Society of Women Engineers. Parents and educators will learn about engineering careers, scholarships, college admission, and resources. Then, kids and parents can enter an expo where they can visit booths run by engineering clubs, camps, and after-school programs from a wide variety of exhibitors.

PROGRAM AIDE TRAINING

Oct. 26, 10 a.m.–3:30 p.m. Woodland Hills Service Center

Nov. 15, 10 a.m.–3:30 p.m. Arcadia Service Center

Nov. 22, 10 a.m.–3:30 p.m. Montclair Service Center

Grades 6–12, $25 registered girl/$35 non-registered girl

Be a role model and deepen your understanding of leadership development! Program aides guide younger girls to be leaders in their own lives and in the world. This training helps girls gain skills needed to work with younger girls, peers, and adult volunteers. Program aides may put their skills into practice working at council programs, summer programs, and at troop and service unit-led events.

LA KINGS FAMILY NIGHT (GAME 1)

Oct. 26, 1–6 p.m.

Grades K–12 and families

300 seating level: $42 / 200 level: $77

STAPLES Center

The Kings are the champions of hockey for the second time in three years! Join the excitement of LA Kings hockey with other Girl Scouts and their families. Start the afternoon off with a great game as the Kings take on the Columbus Blue Jackets. The Kings will host a post-game trick-or-treat as well! After the game and trick-or-treat, the first 100 girls to purchase tickets will have the opportunity to ice skate on Stanley Cup Champion ice! All girls will receive a commemorative Kings patch. Tickets are very limited.

INTRO TO PROGRAMMING WORKSHOP

Nov. 2, 9 a.m.–3 p.m.

Woodland Hills Service Center

Grades 9–12, $25 per girl

Everyone should learn to code! Learning about programming helps you discover how computers work and understand the world of technology around you. Ever wanted to make your own game, program a robot, or create an interactive story? Programmers do that and more! Two snacks will be provided, but please bring a sack lunch.

GOLD AWARD WORKSHOP

Nov. 3, 6:30–8:30 p.m. Woodland Hills Service Center

Seraphina B.

A 2014 TOP COOKIE SELLER

What do you love about selling cookies?

I love making people's days! Everyone loves Girl Scout Cookies—customers get very excited when they see my booth! I also love reconnecting with customers every year; I would have never met a lot of people if I hadn't started selling cookies.

How did it feel when you found out that you were one of our top 3 sellers (3,000+ boxes)?

It's motivating because it shows that lots of work pays off. It's a great honor, and it shows that if you set a goal, you can reach it. I hope that I can work hard and get better at other things that I love to do, like playing music and swimming.

Has your participation in the cookie program contributed to your career dreams?

Yes! I either want to start a company and be a CEO, or be a violinist in the Los Angeles Philharmonic. Both stem from things I love to do—business and music!

Why do you think girls should participate in the cookie program?

It has so many valuable lessons and helps you understand business! It can teach girls everyday things, like how to give the right change or how to overcome shyness. It also teaches bigger lessons, like how to learn about the products you're selling, how to budget time and money, and how to set good goals!

What advice do you have for other girls looking to reach high cookie sales goals?

Always set a high goal—even if you think it's going to be impossible. With enough hard work, you can make it happen. Also, make sure to never stop trying—even if you don't reach your goals this year, that doesn't mean that you can't try again next cookie season!

Teri Proffitt

LEAD OF THE GSGLA
COOKIE GO TEAM

Go Teams are groups of volunteers and staff who work together to research best practices and rewrite training curriculum, processes, and more. Here's what Teri has to say about the Girl Scout Cookie Program:

Number of years participating in the Girl Scout Cookie Program:

I've been participating for more than 30 years! Eleven years as a girl and more than 20 years as an adult volunteer, including more than 10 years as a service unit and troop cookie program chair.

Favorite cookie:

Tagalongs!

Top three tips for troops to prepare for a direct sale:

(1) Determine girl and troop goals for the year: what activities the girls want to do, how many boxes do they need to sell, or would like to sell. (2) Prepare the girls for the differences with a direct sale, so they can begin strategizing how they will hit the ground running when the sale begins. (3) In planning the troop calendar, keep the cookie sale dates free for selling.

Why was now the time to move to $5 a box?

It has been many years since the price has increased. Given the current inflation, the price for our cookies today would be well over $5. Over the years, the cost of providing our exceptional Girl Scout program and the cost of doing business has increased. While no time is good to raise prices, several neighboring councils have already done so or are increasing the price this year. With the price increase, girl rewards will also improve and troop proceeds will increase.

Why and how should volunteers join the GSGLA Cookie Go Team?

Joining the Cookie Go Team gives volunteers an opportunity to work with other volunteers to aid in bettering the cookie program for the girls, parents, and leaders. Let your positive and enthusiastic voice be heard! Get more information on Go Teams at girlscoutsla.org under "For Volunteers."

HOW FAR WILL YOUR GIFT GO?

What can your Family Partnership donation do for girls?

It can:

- Supplement membership fees for families with financial need
- Send a girl to camp whose family could otherwise not afford it
- Improve or repair program properties or equipment
- Enhance our program offerings to stay relevant to today's girls
- Offer new experiences to your own Girl Scout—which could change her life.

GSGLA relies on donations to provide services to every girl, every where.
