2017 Tournament of Roses Troop Girl Scout Participation Requirements and Expectations

The Tournament of Roses Parade is watched by over 47 million Americans, as well as millions of people in 220 territories around the world. GSGLA is seeking Girl Scouts who are proud of their heritage, and excited to serve as representatives for our Council.

Please note that the Tournament of Roses Committee has very strict regulations, which we are required to follow during our selection procedure. We appreciate your interest and are excited to be able to share this opportunity with you.

Only GSGLA Girl Scouts may apply to participate as:

Tournament Troop (Banner Carriers for award-winning floats) – These girls will carry the banners ahead of the award-winning floats. They must be a currently registered Senior or Ambassador Girl Scout who has earned her Gold Award by August 2016, or is currently a high school senior working on an approved Gold Award Project.

Other critical information:

- Selected participants must be able to attend practices, picture day, Elks' Breakfast, and parade day. See sample schedule below. A schedule with exact dates will be provided at the Parents' Meeting & Orientation to be held in October 2016.
- Selected participants must be available to attend the Scouting Reception to be held in November, 2015, at the Tournament House Pasadena.
- Selected participants for the Tournament Troop must be able to walk 6 miles at parade pace. (Girl Scouts in a wheel chair must be able to proceed at this pace for the duration of the parade).
- Tournament Troop members must be able to carry 10-15 lbs. of weight.
- Participants must be prepared to represent GSGLA in uniform.
- Participants must have a media release & Health History Record on file with GSGLA.
- For health and safety, all participants must wear non-skid, sturdy black leather shoes that tie. (NO tennis shoes)
- Troop dues will be $125.00, payable by all participants.

 (If needed payment arrangements can be made; we are willing to work with families to make this an option for each and every girl)

 Tournament of Roses Troop members are encouraged to sell commemorative pins to reimburse most of the cost of participation. Pins will be provided in December.
