

Camp Lakota Work Weekend

Roll up your sleeves for a good cause! Enjoy the fresh mountain air? We need help with painting, cleaning and yard work. Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles is hosting a volunteer weekend at Camp Lakota. Come for the day or come for the weekend, beginning on Friday, September 30 through Sunday, October 2. Volunteers will be fed delicious camp meals: breakfast, lunch and dinner. Nightly entertainment, fun and games, free exercise! Space is limited to 50 persons and there is a fee of $10 to offset food cost. Registration is now open on eBiz, follow the link here. Please note: after you register on eBiz, you will receive a confirmation email that contains the iVolunteer link to register for specific work groups, dates, and times - you MUST complete this step to finish registration. If you have questions, please contact Gerardo Castro at GCastro@girlscoutsla.org Thank you and hope to see you there!

Agenda:

- Volunteers may arrive as early as 3:00 pm on Friday afternoon, but will be on their own for dinner.
- Breakfast will be served in the Ranch House starting at 8:00 am on Saturday.
- Work parties to start at 9:00 am through 12:00 pm.
- Lunch will be served in the Ranch House at 12:00 pm.
- Work parties will resume at 1:00 pm through 4:00 pm.
- Break from 4:00 pm through 6:00 pm.
- Dinner will be served in the Ranch House at 6:00 pm.
- Gather at the campfire for stories and songs at 7:00 pm.
- Only breakfast provided on Sunday, Oct. 2