First Year Leader Award Patch

This award is for Leaders and Co-Leaders who completed their first year of leadership, took required training, and committed to serve a second year.

The service unit may automatically award this based on the current information the leadership team has.

Leader with a Heart Award Pin

The Leader with a Heart award is given to a Leader or Co-Leader by parents and girls in the troop who believe the nominee to be outstanding in program delivery and troop leadership. Nominee must have completed all required trainings.

Nomination

A parent, co-leader, or older girl familiar with troop activities fills out the nomination form giving details to support the nomination. Two or more additional parents, co-leaders or girls write letters of endorsement. The letters should include examples of the leader's special qualities and details of activities of the troop. Girls are encouraged to write letters. Original letters should be given to the Leader upon presentation of the award.

Example of Possible Candidates

- A leader who has consistently progressed the troop and achieved a milestone, whether a large trip, a bridging event, or completing a community service project or award.
- A leader who looks for every opportunity to expose the troop to new experiences, whether by camping, field trips, or service projects.
- A leader who has provided assistance and reassurance, whether to the entire troop or to an individual girl and/or girl's family, through a time of adversity.

Volunteer of Excellence Award

A GSUSA National Award recognizing those volunteers who have contributed outstanding service while partnering directly with girls in any pathway to implement the Girl Scout Leadership Experience or have contributed outstanding service in support of GSGLA's mission to girl and adult members.

Criteria

- The nominee is an active, registered adult Girl Scout.
- The nominee has successfully completed a term of service and all requirements for the position.
- The nominee has performed beyond expectations for the position to deliver the GSLE to girls using the National Program Portfolio, or
- The nominee's performance has been beyond the expectations of the position and has supported the council's mission-deliver goals in one or more of the following functional areas: Membership Development/Community Cultivation, Volunteer Relations and Support, Program, Leadership and Governance, Fund Development, and Council Support Service (such as IT, Customer Service, Merchandising).
- The nominee actively recognizes, understands and practices the values of inclusive behavior.

Service Unit Team Awards

- The team member has completed required training for the position.
- The nominee's performance has been beyond the expectations of the position and has supported the council's goals in Fund Development, Community Visibility and Membership Growth.

TIPS

Do...

- Help make sure your candidate receives the recognition they deserve for their hard work. Tell us all you can... Service Unit Awards and Recognitions Team can only work with what is in front of them. If you don't tell them about it, they won't know.
- Be results-oriented. Do not say that the candidate is responsible, friendly, etc. – tell the results they achieved.
- Explain your personal connection to the candidate. ("I work with her/him in my role as...")
- Most importantly, only include information about the scope of work they are nominated for. If they are being nominated as an outstanding Service Unit Team member, the work they do with their troop, while appreciated, is not relevant and should not be included.

Don't...

- Do not be vague. It is assumed that this is a nice person whom you like and think positively of. Otherwise, you wouldn't be nominating them.
- Do not write about the many positions the candidate holds unless the positions are relevant to the award and you have personal experience working with the candidate in that role.
- Do not make assumptions about the responsibilities involved with service unit level positions.
- Many service units divide duties among people who are willing to do them. It does not matter that a candidate does not do all of the listed responsibilities. It is more important that s/he does them "above the expectation of the position."
- Do not just look at the position description or the award requirements and tell us s/he does each of these things – these are considered part of the position and not above and beyond.

Examples of information to include in Supporting Endorsements:

"I support the nomination of Lou Henry Hoover as a deserving recipient of the GSUSA Appreciation Pin. Lou has served with me on the Marina Service Unit Team for the past 5 years and for 7 years as leader for Troop 1812. She created our Service Unit Website, which has greatly streamlined communications among leaders and other Service Unit volunteers. The website provides a centralized location for forms and information, and our new wiki allows leaders to share ideas. Lou is the go-to person for all things Internet.

Lou is also an accomplished performer – she sings as part of a duo and has entertained hundreds of Scouts at various events throughout the years, including our Service Unit Spring Camporee and Thinking Day Events. She has also entertained thousands of people in the community on her long-running local cable program "Learn and Do". She transfers these lessons to the Service Unit meetings, and helps leaders "learn and do" everything from beading projects and making pancakes, to how to use different computer software and start a hobby or collection.

I have benefited from her encouragement of individual leaders in our Service Unit, her intricate knowledge on many subjects and her ability to teach in "plain language" that everyone can understand. She is a true "hands-on" kind of person who values human relationships and embraces the Girl Scout Mission.

I could not recommend her more highly for this honor, as Lou is extremely deserving of receiving the GSUSA Appreciation Pin."

"I would like to support Mildred Mudd's nomination to receive the GSUSA Volunteer of Excellence Award. I have known Millie as a leader and integral part of the Marina Service Unit for the last 12 years. During this time she has also given of herself to help leaders and girls throughout GSGLA develop a love and respect for nature.

She has been a Council Trainer for the last 6 years, focusing on Outdoor Skills. She developed an innovative overnight training program where the adults experience a true-to-life campout. They learn all the camping skills they will need to teach their own girls and even make eco-friendly kaper charts to determine their camp responsibilities. She served on the Council Properties Committee for two years and then volunteered as Camp Director for both Mistletoe Camp and Green Pines the following three years.

Millie is the consummate Girl Scout. She has set a standard that inspires all scouts. She has helped countless girls and adult volunteers learn to enjoy the out-of-doors and take that joy (and camping skills) back to girls in their troop. Many of these troops are in the poorest parts of the city where open space is no longer available. They relish the opportunity to sleep under the stars, learn to find Polaris, the North Star, and bake brownies in a box.

Service Unit Team Position Awards

The Keys to a Successful Membership Year are the Service Team Volunteers!

When the founder of Girl Scouts brought her ideas to the girls of the United States of America, she left them in the capable hands of adult volunteers! They are renowned for the quality of their service. In order to recognize their contributions, accomplishments and actions, these awards provide a concrete documentation to honor the high standards that are set and met.

During the membership year each member of the Service Team should keep the checklist up-to-date and use it as a measure of team member development. On the requested date, turn the checklist in to the Service Unit Manager. When the checklist is verified a recognition award will be presented. This award is a small measure of the outstanding work provided on behalf of girls.

Award Checklist and Approval Procedure

1. The candidate is a registered Girl Scout member of a Service Team.
2. The Service Team member obtains the checklist and keeps it up-to date through the year.
3. A copy of the completed checklist is kept by each Service Team member for their records.
4. The completed signed checklist is turned in to the Service Unit Manager by the date requested.
5. The Service Unit Manager verifies the information, approves the award, and places the order at least 30 days prior to need.

Form of Recognition

The Service Unit Team Position Award is a pin purchased by the Service Unit and presented at a Service Unit Recognition Event. Each team position is represented by a different charm and may be received by an individual once for each team position.

Service Team Volunteers are the KEYS that unlock the endless possibilities, enriching the lives of each Girl Scout!

Quick & Easy Recognitions For The Entire Year Thank You

YOU MAY ASK “WHY DO WE GIVE THANK YOUS?”

Awards or Recognitions are given when a person meets all the criteria for that certain award. A “Thank You” is given to volunteers and leaders for a job well done and/or to show appreciation for their efforts. These may be given at any time and hopefully in front of their peers. Thank Yous can be given for being a product manager, chair of an event, helping at Service Unit Events, taking troops on outings, or many different things. They should be timely, given as soon as possible. Here are some ideas for Thank Yous.

- Casserole for a leader who has just taken her troop on an outing and does not have to cook a meal for her family when she gets home.
- Cover the costs for a Girl Scout training or workshop –or offer to babysit while the Leader is taking it.
- Girl Scout mug and a bag of coffee or tea.
- Put a sign outside her/his door, “Our Girl Scout Leader lives here. Thank You.”
- Flowers
- Wrap a few cinnamon buns or cupcakes with a note saying, “Thanks for working your buns off” or “You take the cake!”
- Candle: “No one holds a candle to you. Thanks for your leadership.”
- A gift certificate
- Pasta Spoon: “Girl Scout Volunteers provide wonderful “Pastabilities for girls”
- Million Dollar Chocolate Bar: “Thanks a Million”
