

every
girl
can
make
the
world
a better
place

every
girl
can
make
the
world
a
better
place

every
girl
can
make
the
world
a
better
place

every
girl
can
make
the
world
a
better
place

Why Girl Scouts?

Preparing girls to succeed

1. Girl-led. Girl Scouts is one of the few programs that lets girls design their own experiences and set their own goals, building independence.
2. All-girl environment. Girls are more comfortable being themselves around others going through similar life experiences.
3. Building courage. Girls are challenged to try new things they would otherwise not attempt outside of Girl Scouts.
4. Building confidence. A supportive, inclusive environment helps even the shyest girl come out of her shell and learn to be a leader.
5. Building character. Service opportunities teach girls the importance of giving back and helping others.
6. Positive life outcomes. Girl Scouts are more likely to obtain higher college degrees, earn more money, vote, and volunteer.
7. Friendships for life. Girl Scouts build meaningful relationships that often last through adulthood.

Why Girl Scouts?

Preparing girls to succeed

1. Girl-led. Girl Scouts is one of the few programs that lets girls design their own experiences and set their own goals, building independence.
2. All-girl environment. Girls are more comfortable being themselves around others going through similar life experiences.
3. Building courage. Girls are challenged to try new things they would otherwise not attempt outside of Girl Scouts.
4. Building confidence. A supportive, inclusive environment helps even the shyest girl come out of her shell and learn to be a leader.
5. Building character. Service opportunities teach girls the importance of giving back and helping others at a young age.
6. Positive life outcomes. Girl Scouts are more likely to obtain higher college degrees, earn more money, vote, and volunteer.
7. Friendships for life. Girl Scouts build meaningful relationships that often last through adulthood.

Why Girl Scouts?

Preparing girls to succeed

1. Girl-led. Girl Scouts is one of the few programs that lets girls design their own experiences and set their own goals, building independence.
2. All-girl environment. Girls are more comfortable being themselves around others going through similar life experiences.
3. Building courage. Girls are challenged to try new things they would otherwise not attempt outside of Girl Scouts.
4. Building confidence. A supportive, inclusive environment helps even the shyest girl come out of her shell and learn to be a leader.
5. Building character. Service opportunities teach girls the importance of giving back and helping others at a young age.
6. Positive life outcomes. Girl Scouts are more likely to obtain higher college degrees, earn more money, vote, and volunteer.
7. Friendships for life. Girl Scouts build meaningful relationships that often last through adulthood.

Why Girl Scouts?

Preparing girls to succeed

1. Girl-led. Girl Scouts is one of the few programs that lets girls design their own experiences and set their own goals, building independence.
2. All-girl environment. Girls are more comfortable being themselves around others going through similar life experiences.
3. Building courage. Girls are challenged to try new things they would otherwise not attempt outside of Girl Scouts.
4. Building confidence. A supportive, inclusive environment helps even the shyest girl come out of her shell and learn to be a leader.
5. Building character. Service opportunities teach girls the importance of giving back and helping others at a young age.
6. Positive life outcomes. Girl Scouts are more likely to obtain higher college degrees, earn more money, vote, and volunteer.
7. Friendships for life. Girl Scouts build meaningful relationships that often last through adulthood.