Dear Girl Scouts, Families, and Friends,

I am writing you with exciting news! Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles was just named Organization of the Year by the Los Angeles Business Journal! Among a grouping of extraordinary finalists, GSGLA was announced as the winner in the large nonprofit category ($10M+ budget) at the Los Angeles Business Journal Nonprofit & Corporate Citizenship Awards this afternoon, and the audience erupted in applause!

This recognition is a statement that our leadership program for girls matters, and that your talent and efforts are making a difference in our communities. I hope you're as proud of Girl Scouts as I was to accept the award on your behalf. Thank you, thank you for your dedication to our mission.

You have helped GSGLA grow into our region's leading and largest girl-serving nonprofit organization. Together, we are engaging girls in opportunities and experiences that inspire girls to take the lead, try something new, push their limits, and find their voice. Each girl's story is different, but they all confirm how our work is inspiring them to reach their greatest potential and subsequently make the world a better place.

Congratulations! You have my deep appreciation for all you do.

Sincerely,
