Learn to Code!

Cadettes, Seniors & Ambassadors!

Sunday, December 7!

KidsCanCode

WHEN: 9am - 3pm
WHERE: Woodland Hills Service Center

COST: $25.00
REGISTRATION ENDS: December 3, 2014

Everyone should learn to code!

Learning about programming helps you learn about how computers work, and helps you understand the world of technology around you.

Have you ever wanted to make your own game, program a robot, or create an interactive story? Programmers do that and more!

Facilitated by Chris Bradfield from Kids Can Code!

Two snacks will be provided, but please bring a sack lunch.
