

NOTICE: PayPal Outage Reported

A key part of the Internet's infrastructure was attacked today causing some major web sites/services to become inaccessible for many users. Currently PayPal users worldwide are being affected by this outage and are unable to process payments. A review of GSUSA's PayPal transactions indicates that the issue began affecting our customers around 12PM ET this afternoon.

We do not have any additional information from PayPal, but we do suggest contacting them directly for additional information.

Below is a link to a Chicago Tribune article regarding the issue:
