

Volunteers Needed!

Cool patch & prizes included!

WHO: All levels of Girl Scouts!

WHAT: Welcome to a carnival re-imagined with fire, lasers, and robots! Girls will be hooked with modern amusement spectacles that leverage their interests in music, fashion, and games to expose them to STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art and math) disciplines. Attractions include a midway of tech-infused games, hands-on workshops, set to a backdrop of high-energy entertainment.

WHERE: El Dorado Park West Community Center in Long Beach

WHEN: August 16, 2014 from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm

COST: $40 per girl/ $20 per adult

DETAILS: STEAM Carnival is the creation of Los Angeles-based engineering entertainment company Two Bit Circus. This team of artists, inventors, engineers, and entrepreneurs is passionate about reimagining all forms of entertainment to inspire kids of all ages. Members of the team have been on-camera inventors for network television, built viral videos for rock bands, and created massive spectacles for large brands. You last saw them at Girltopia, where they led the Wearable Technology Fashion Show and had a variety of their games on the show floor!

Need more information or want to help:
Contact Kris Simon 626) 677-2303 ksimon@girlscoutsla.org
Register online at www.girlscoutsla.org

girls go tech

girl scouts
greater los angeles