Beauty is about more than the way you look! Today's girls have the world of beauty at their fingertips but amidst the tutorials and “how-tos” the truth about what makes a girl beautiful can get lost in the shuffle. Led by professional makeup artist and confidence cultivator Allie Lapidus, this workshop is designed to teach girls simple, age-appropriate beauty basics that emphasize the features each girl loves most about herself. Additional topics include skincare basics and caring for the health of the skin, dissecting beliefs about beauty that influence the way we feel about the way we look, and approaching beauty with a mindset that emphasizes authenticity and individuality.
