

Social Butterfly!

A badge workshop for JUNIORS!

Where: Woodland Hills Service Center

When: November 22, 9:30am–11:00am

Cost: $30

Includes: badge and giveaways.

From the way women are depicted on television to the way we are exploited on social media, there's a paucity of proper guidance in social graces for young ladies.

Charm & social grace training modules help equip our young girls with the level of self confidence they'll need to become leaders in modern society. Session covers:

- What Would A Lady Do?
- Etiquette Basics
- *Manners Matter
- *Greetings & Introductions
- *The Art of Dining

TIFFINY DIXON, renowned style coach and one of the stars from Lifetime's "Girlfriend Intervention" will be hosting this fantastic workshop with her Assistant. Tiffany founded Charm School: Little & Young Ladies in Training while living in New York, and is now bringing it to Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles!

When she's not busy lending her voice, image and likeness as a face of Proctor & Gambles' "My Black is Beautiful" national ad campaign to bolster self-esteem and celebrate women, you can find her working diligently on a local level to continue the movement to empower women and girls through style & grace.

In 2007 Tiffany E. Dixon seamlessly merged sophistication and fun, founding ME Optimized (MEO).

Prior to making the entrepreneur leap, Dixon worked in the Financial Industry at Citigroup and Goldman Sachs as an analyst /project manager. In 2004 Dixon served as a press intern for the (then NYC Senator) Hillary Rodham Clinton.

This session is conducted over a proper tea setting!
