

2015 Luncheon Honorees

Jan Swartz

President

Princess Cruises, Princess Cruises Community Foundation

Jan Swartz was appointed President of Princess Cruises in November 2013, after more than 15 years working with the cruise line. Swartz also serves as President of Princess Cruises Community Foundation. Prior to this, she served as executive vice president overseeing the line's sales, marketing and customer service operations, a position she held since 2009. In this role, she directed many of the line's key operations including domestic and international sales efforts, consumer and trade marketing and communications initiatives, market planning and yield management functions, and customer service activities for both travel agents and consumers.

Swartz holds a Master of Business Administration degree from Harvard Business School and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and English from the University of Virginia.

Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles proudly honors Jan Swartz. Swartz represents the power of Girl Scouting. As a Girl Scout alumna, she knows that leadership and community service go hand-in-hand. Overseeing Princess Cruise line's worldwide operations, which include 17 ships and 25,000 employees, Swartz leads with innovation, resilience, and integrity.
