

Volunteer Appreciation Weeks

Volunteer Appreciation Week—the third week in April—is set aside especially for you. Girl Scouts pay tribute to the volunteers who help girls make the world a better place. The week centers on the long-standing National Girl Scout Leaders' Day (April 22), but expands the definition of volunteers beyond troop leaders, to include all the volunteers who work in so many ways on behalf of girls in Girl Scouting.

Parents can help their daughters show their leaders appreciation by nominating them for Leader with a Heart award. The information for this award can be found at www.girlscoutsla.org on our Resources page.

Our Volunteers of the Month site is another great way to recognize any volunteer. Tell us what your special person is doing, submitting a photograph is a bonus! Every month we add to our list of wonderful volunteers.

Girl Scouts celebrates Volunteers Make a Difference Week, in conjunction with Make a Difference Day, which is the weekend we set our clocks back in the fall.

Check out Quick and Easy Recognitions on our Resources site for fun and quick ways to appreciate volunteers throughout the year!
